"The big league team had a breakthrough season in 2001 and the farm system continues to be the envy of the game. It all adds up to a bright future."

In The Clubhouse

Yosh Kawano will be spending his 60th season in a major league clubhouse in 2002, assisting Dana Noeltner in the visiting clubhouse.

Kawano joined the Cubs' organization in 1943 as a Wrigley Field clubhouse attendant. He was named the club's equipment manager in 1953 — and held that position until 1999. He was the home clubhouse manager, emeritus, in 2000.

In 1984, the Cubs' clubhouse was named in Kawano's honor. He was inducted into the Cubs' Walk of Fame in 1996.

How To Figure Baseball Statistics

- Earned Run Average — (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).
- Batting Average — H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.
- Slugging Percentage — TB/AB: Total number of bases (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases) divided by at-bats.
- Fielding Average — (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).
- On-Base Percentage — (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.
- Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.
- Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Power Trip

Sammy Sosa (450 home runs), Fred McGriff (448) and Moises Alou (202) will enter the 2002 season with a combined 1,100 major league roundtrippers.

The only time in Cubs history that the club had a trio of 200-homer sluggers with more than 1,000 combined homers was in 1970-1971, when — by that point in their careers — Ernie Banks, Billy Williams and Ron Santo had accomplished that feat. The last time the Cubs had three batters with at least 200 homers apiece was the 1991 trio of Andre Dawson, Ryne Sandberg and George Bell.

In case you were wondering ...

- © the last time the Cubs had two players reach the 30-homers mark in one season was in 1998 (Sammy Sosa 66, Henry Rodriguez 31). The Cubs have never had three players reach that figure in one year.
- © the last time the Cubs had two players reach the 100-RBI mark in one season was in 1991 (Andre Dawson 104, Ryne Sandberg 100). In fact, other than those two and Sammy Sosa, the only Cubs to have a 100-RBI campaign over the past 20 years are Bill Buckner (105 in 1982) and Keith Moreland (106 in 1985).
- © the last time three Cubs had triple-digit RBI campaigns was in 1970 (Billy Williams 129, Jim Hickman 115, Ron Santo 114).

Road Warriors

The Cubs have not had a road winning streak of longer than 5 games since the 1991 season, when the club won 6 straight away contests over parts of three road trips (May 22-May 23, May 31-June 2, June 14).

The club's best start to a road trip took place in 1918, when the Cubs began an 18-game excursion with an 8-game winning streak June 1-June 11 at Boston (4 wins), Philadelphia (3 wins) and New York (1 win). The Cubs went 12-6 for the trip.

The last time the Cubs had a perfect multiple-city road trip took place in 1945. On September 27 that year, the club swept a doubleheader against Cincinnati at Crosley Field by scores of 3-1 and 7-4. Then, on September 29-September 30, the club won 3 games at Pittsburgh's Forbes Field (4-3 and 5-0 in a twinbill, followed by a 5-3 triumph).

The last time the Cubs swept consecutive road series took place in 1998, as the club was victorious in back-to-back 2-game sets at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark (May 11-May 12) and Colorado's Coors Field (May 13-May 14). The last time the club swept consecutive road series of at least 3 games each occurred in 1971 (June 25-June 27 at St. Louis' Busch Stadium; July 6-July 8 at Los Angeles' Dodger Stadium).

Longest Winning Streak: 2 games, 5/22-5/28/01

Imperfect Pitch

The Cubs gave up 54 runs over a 3-game span July 1-July 3, 1999, surrendering 19 runs to Milwaukee before allowing back-to-back 14- and 21-run efforts at Philadelphia. The 3-game total was the highest in the majors in 49 seasons. From June 7-June 9, 1950, the St. Louis Browns surrendered 56 runs to the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (the Browns lost the first 2 games by scores of 20-4 and 29-4 before recording a 12-7 win).

Meanwhile, on May 4-May 5, 1999, the Cubs allowed at least 1 run in 13 consecutive innings (against Colorado) — a 20th-century National League record. The former N.L. mark of 12 innings had been set by Philadelphia in 1923. The 20th-century major league runs-allowed streak was set by Cleveland — a 14-inning stretch in 1903 at Boston (September 16-September 17). During the May 5 contest, the Cubs became the seventh team in N.L. history to allow runs in all 9 frames of a 9-inning affair.

Save Rule

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and;
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and;
- (3) He qualifies under the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or;
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or;
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

Hundley: Facts And Information

Todd, a frequent Wrigley Field guest during his formative years, signed with the Cubs as a free agent prior to the 2001 campaign.

© has appeared in 1,007 games at catcher during his major league career ... his father, Randy, saw action in 1,061 games (1,026 appearances behind the plate) for four teams from 1964-1977 — including the Cubs (1966-1973 and 1976-1977).

◆ the Hundleys are just the seventh father/son combination in Cubs history — and one of just eight father/son catcher combos in big league history.

◆ when Todd was born on May 27, 1969, the Cubs — and Randy — were on a West Coast trip in San Francisco ... upon hearing the news of Todd's birth, Randy hit a grand slam in his next game (May 28 off the Giants' Ray Sadecki).

© has spent 12 seasons in the majors with the New York Mets (1990-1998), the Los Angeles Dodgers (1999-2000) and the Cubs, hitting 184 home runs.

◆ during his time with the Mets, he set a big league record in 1996 for most homers by a catcher (41) and was a National League All-Star in 1996-1997 ... also earned N.L. Player of the Week honors once.

© began his Cubs career wearing No. 99 before switching to No. 9 during the 2001 campaign.

◆ the highest jersey number in Cubs history had been the No. 96 worn by Bill Voiselle in 1950.

© toyed with abandoning switch-hitting during the 1999-2001 seasons ... over the three-season span, he had 56 at-bats as a left-handed batter vs. southpaw pitching — and recorded 13 hits (.232 average) with 1 homer (August 22, 2000, off Montreal's Scott Forster) and 14 RBI.

© his charitable endeavors include the "Hundley's Heroes" community program, assisting autistic children, fighting breast cancer and aiding the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

◆ for his many contributions to the community, he received the Thurman Award at the annual Thurman Munson Dinner in New York in 1997.

© received the Good Guy Award following the 1996 season from the New York Press Photographers, New York Baseball Writers and New Jersey Sportswriters.

© graduated from Fremd High School in Palatine, IL, in 1987, where he was an all-conference and all-area baseball selection.

2001 Season

Todd struggled at the plate during much of his first season with the Cubs, batting .187 in 79 games with 12 homers and 31 RBI ... finished the year, though, with 7 homers and 4 doubles in his last 21 games.

© began his Cubs career strictly as a left-handed batter ... officially returned to switch-hitting August 23 when he batted right-handed off Milwaukee's Ray King (drawing a walk).

◆ up to that point, he had gone 5-for-19 vs. southpaws with 2 doubles and 5 RBI.

◆ as a right-handed batter, he went on to go 2-for-5 with a double.

© had a trio of 2-homer games, giving him 15 for his major league career.

◆ hit his first 2 Cubs homers April 21 at Pittsburgh — a game-tying 2-run shot in the 7th inning off Todd Ritchie and a game-winning solo roundtripper in the 9th off Mike Williams ... also had 2-homer contests September 2 at Atlanta (going deep off Kevin Millwood and John Smoltz) and September 22 at Houston (off Shane Reynolds and Mike Jackson).

© equaled his career high with a 9-game hitting streak April 14-April 27 (10-34, .294).

© hit his fifth career pinch homer April 25 off Colorado's Jose Jimenez.

© hit his first Wrigley Field homer as a member of the Cubs May 5 off former Los Angeles teammate Darren Dreifort ... had 11 homers at The Friendly Confines as a visiting player.

© was on the disabled list June 19-July 26 with a lower back muscular strain ... returned to the Cubs after making injury rehab stops at West Tenn (AA) and Iowa (AAA).

© when he hit a 2-run homer August 1 off San Diego right-hander Bobby Jones, it was his first roundtripper since May 5.

© his 2-run homer October 4 off Cincinnati's Jose Acevedo gave the Cubs a 2-0 victory.

© began the season wearing uniform No. 99 — the highest number in Cubs history — then switched to No. 9 on May 22.

Family Ties

Only one father/son combination in Cubs history has made Opening Day starts for the club.

Shortstop Jimmy Cooney started three straight openers from 1890-1892, while his son — also named Jimmy and also a shortstop — was an Opening Day starter in 1926-1927.

Randy Hundley made 5 Opening Day starts behind the plate during his time with the Cubs.

Career Review

2000: Todd spent his final season with the Dodgers, appearing in 90 games and batting .284 with 24 homers and 70 RBI.

© hit .299 (73-244) with 21 homers and 59 RBI as a left-handed batter ... from the right side of the plate, he went 12-for-55 (.218) with 3 homers and 11 RBI.

◆ abandoned switch hitting for the season on August 22, solely batting from the left side for the remainder of the season ... was 6-for-21 batting left-handed vs. southpaw hurlers with 1 homer (August 22 off Montreal's Scott Forster) and 6 RBI.

© his playing time was limited due to a pair of stints on the disabled list (May 31-June 26 with a strained right oblique muscle, July 9-July 27 with a fractured right thumb).

© batted .364 with runners in scoring position (28-77) with 10 homers and 53 RBI.

© hit a pair of grand slams (May 6 off Houston's Octavio Dotel and September 30 off San Diego's Matt Clement) — the sixth and seventh bases-loaded roundtrippers of his big league career.

◆ the September 30 blast was the Dodgers' ninth grand slam of the season, establishing a franchise record.

© drove in at least 2 runs in 17 games — including four 4-RBI affairs.

© became the first visiting player to homer into the bay outside of Pacific Bell Park June 30 (off Robb Nen).

© fielded at a .979 clip in 84 games behind the plate (82 starts) ... threw out 19 of the 95 baserunners who attempted to steal off him.

1999: Was Los Angeles' Opening Day catcher in his first year with the Dodgers ... appeared in 114 games and batted .207 with 24 homers and 55 RBI.

© hit all of his homers as a left-handed batter ... gave up switch-hitting for the season August 13 after going 4-for-44 from the right side of the plate with 2 RBI.

© hit a grand slam July 19 off Pittsburgh's Jose Silva.

1998: Appeared in only 53 games for the Mets while recuperating from elbow surgery performed the previous season ... was activated off the disabled list July 11.

© made 34 starts in leftfield and 2 starts behind the plate ... also was utilized as a pinch hitter 17 times.

◆ when he made his season debut July 11 with a start in leftfield vs. Montreal, it was his first big league appearance in the outfield.

© returned to the injured list August 28-September 12 with right elbow irritation.

◆ made his first big league start at catcher since the surgery September 13 at Montreal.

© hit a pinch home run off Houston's Sean Bergman September 16 to give the Mets an 11-inning 4-3 win.

1997: Reached the 30-homer mark for the second straight season before his campaign was cut short due to an injured right elbow ... batted .273 in 132 games with 30 homers and 86 RBI.

© when he hit his 30th homer September 8 off Philadelphia's Mike Grace, he became just the third Met (following Dave Kingman and Darryl Strawberry) to record back-to-back 30-homer campaigns.

© was selected to the National League All-Star team for the second consecutive year, but did not appear in the Midsummer Classic.

© had 11 RBI over a 4-game stretch May 5-May 9, hitting 3 homers over the span ... earned N.L. Player of the Week honors for the week ending May 11.

◆ reached base during 10 straight trips to the plate May 5-May 6 at Colorado (3 homers, 4 walks, 2 singles, 1 double).

◆ homered from both sides of the plate in the May 5 contest ... also accomplished the feat July 20 vs. Cincinnati.

© stole home as part of a double steal (with Butch Huskey) June 16 at Yankee Stadium.

© set a Mets team record by drawing 3 intentional walks June 28 at Pittsburgh.

© hit a grand slam August 23 off San Diego's Sean Bergman.

© had just 7 at-bats from September 9-September 23 before being sidelined for the rest of the season ... on September 26, he underwent surgery in which Dr. David Altchek arthroscopically removed bone spurs and bone chips from his right elbow.

◆ during the surgery, the medial collateral ligament in his elbow was reconstructed using a tendon from his right wrist.

2001 Season

Jon established himself as one of the National League's top pitchers, going 20-6 with a 3.80 ERA in 34 starts ... joined Sammy Sosa as the Cubs' representatives at the All-Star Game in Seattle and finished 4th in the N.L. Cy Young Award voting.

- Ⓢ was the Cubs' first 20-game winner since Greg Maddux (20) in 1992 ... reached that milestone figure in his final start of the campaign October 3 vs. Cincinnati.
 - ◆ since Fergie Jenkins completed his six-year string of 20-victory seasons in 1972, the only other pitchers to reach the 20-wins mark for the Cubs have been Rick Reuschel (20 in 1977), Rick Sutcliffe (20 in 1984 — including 4 with Cleveland) and Maddux.
- Ⓢ the victory total ranked 4th in the league ... also ranked among the league leaders in innings pitched (232.1 — 5th), complete games (5 — tied for 2nd), winning percentage (.769 — 4th) and fewest walks per 9.0 innings (1.6 — 3rd).
 - ◆ walked just 41 batters in his 34 starts — and had 11 starts without issuing a walk.
- Ⓢ the Cubs went 24-10 in his starts — the highest number of wins by the club for a starter since 1969, when they were 25-15-1 in Bill Hands' 41 starts and 25-17 in Fergie Jenkins' 42 starts.
- Ⓢ went 17-3 with 4 complete games over his final 25 starts, allowing just 25 walks in 169.1 innings.
 - ◆ had winning streaks of 6 games (June 16-July 15) and 5 games (July 25-August 25).
- Ⓢ went 12-1 in his 17 Wrigley Field starts — the highest Wrigley Field victory total since Greg Maddux went 12-4 in 1992.
 - ◆ since the Cubs moved to Wrigley Field in 1916, only one other pitcher — Lon Warneke (14-1 in 1932) — had a double-digit victory total at The Friendly Confines while losing only once.
- Ⓢ on May 24 vs. the Reds at Wrigley Field, he allowed just 1 hit in a 3-0 victory ... needed just 78 pitches (55 for strikes) in the 1-hour, 48-minute contest — the lowest 9.0-inning pitch total for a Cubs pitcher since pitch counts began getting logged in 1987.
 - ◆ allowed just 2 baserunners — a Juan Castro single in the 6th inning and a walk to Castro in the 9th ... induced 2 double plays in facing the minimum 27 batters.
 - ◆ the shutout snapped Cincinnati's N.L.-record stretch of having scored in 208 consecutive games.
 - ◆ the contest was the front half of consecutive 1-hitters tossed by Cubs pitchers, as Kerry Wood followed up with a 1-hit 1-0 blanking of Milwaukee May 25.

A Grand Time Was Had By All

With 5 grand slams in 2001, the Cubs increased their all-time number of bases-loaded roundtrippers to 259.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is 9, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than 2 grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit 3 grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for 5th-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

Sam I Am

Sammy Sosa went from 200 career homers to 400 in 3 years, 292 days — the fastest journey from 200 to 400 ever. The only previous man to hit his 400th homer as a Cub, Ernie Banks, took more than 6 years to accelerate from 200 to 400.

The five fastest ever behind Sosa, according to the Elias Sports Bureau:

Ken Griffey Jr. — 3 years, 324 days
Babe Ruth — 4 years, 113 days
Rafael Palmeiro — 4 years, 134 days
Jimmie Foxx — 4 years, 347 days
Mike Schmidt — 5 years, 2 days

Fifty-seven major leaguers have been elected to the Hall of Fame as outfielders. Sosa has more home runs in the last four years (243) than 35 of the Hall of Fame outfielders had for their entire big league careers — including Roberto Clemente (240 homers), Earl Averill (238), Kirby Puckett (207) and Joe Medwick (205).

Only two players have had a season of 30 or more steals and another full (140-plus games) season with 0 steals — Sosa (36 in 1993, 0 in 2001) and Don Baylor (52 in 1976, 0 in 1985).

1994: Won the Cubs' Triple Crown, batting .300 with 25 homers and 70 RBI in the strike-shortened season.

- Ⓢ homered leading off the Cubs' May 4 contest vs. Cincinnati's Tom Browning and the club's May 29 affair off Atlanta's Tom Glavine.

- Ⓢ hit home run No. 30 September 2 off New York's Josias Manzanillo.
 - ◆ joined the 30/30 club September 15 with a 6th-inning steal in San Francisco.
- Ⓢ went 6-for-6 on July 2 at Colorado after hitting safely in his final 3 at-bats June 30 at San Diego.
 - ◆ the 9 consecutive hits established a Cubs record, while the 6-hit performance was the first by a Cub since Jose Cardenal on May 2, 1976.

- Ⓢ hit his first Cubs homer May 7 off Houston's Ryan Bowen.
- Ⓢ had his second career 2-homer contest — and his first with the Cubs — June 10 at St. Louis ... in his next game, he was hit by a pitch thrown by Montreal's Dennis Martinez which broke the fifth metacarpal in his right hand.
 - ◆ was on the disabled list June 13-July 27 ... was 15-for-39 in his first 9 games off the DL with 3 homers ... in the 10th game, he fouled a pitch off his left ankle — fracturing it — and missed the rest of the season.

1991: Struggled during his final season with the White Sox, batting .203 in 116 games ... also spent one month at Vancouver (AAA), hitting .267 with 3 homers.

1-Hit Wonders

On May 25, 2001, vs. Milwaukee at Wrigley Field, Kerry Wood threw a 1-hitter in shutting out the Brewers 1-0. The previous day, Jon Lieber had tossed a 1-hit shutout of his own in defeating Cincinnati 3-0 at Wrigley Field.

This was just the eighth time in major league history that pitchers hurled back-to-back complete-game 1-hitters.

◆ snapped the streak May 19, defeating Arizona 6-2 — which started a personal 6-game winning streak (May 19-June 17).

© on May 25 vs. Milwaukee at Wrigley Field, he pitched his second career 1-hitter in a 1-0 shutout ... allowed just 2 walks while striking out 14 Brewers — as the lone hit he surrendered was a Mark Loretta single leading off the 7th inning.

◆ the contest was the back half of consecutive 1-hitters tossed by Cubs pitchers, following Jon Lieber's 3-0 shutout of Cincinnati May 24.

© was on the disabled list August 4-September 7 with right shoulder tendinitis.

◆ made his last start before going on the disabled list August 3 at Los Angeles and earned his 10th win of the season in a 2-1 decision, outdueling Chan Ho Park ... in 8.0 innings of work, he allowed 3 hits, 1 run (a Shawn Green solo homer) and 2 walks while striking out 9 batters.

◆ returned from the disabled list September 7, starting against Atlanta ... did not figure in the decision in a 3-2 loss, working 6-plus innings (66 pitches) and allowing 5 hits, 2 runs and 1 walk while striking out 6 batters.

© opened the season on the disabled list in order to continue his right elbow rehabilitation ... after making 2 starts for Daytona (A) and 1 for Iowa (AAA), he returned to the majors for a May 2 start vs. Houston.

© over his final 5 starts, he allowed 7 earned runs in 30.1 innings (2.08 ERA) while fanning 31 batters ... the lone blemish over that span was a career-low 1.1-inning stint September 22 vs. St. Louis in which he walked 8 batters.

◆ in his next — and final — start of the season September 27 vs. Philadelphia, he fanned 10 batters in 8.0 innings and picked up the win in a 1-0 contest.

© was on the disabled list July 30-August 21 due to a left oblique strain ... also was on the suspended list September 8-September 10 as a result of his actions during an August 27 affair vs. Los Angeles.

◆ due to the muscle strain, he hit left-handed (for the first time since high school) in his August 22 and August 27 starts ... in the August 27 affair, he had an infield hit batting left-handed off Los Angeles' Ismael Valdes.

1999: Missed the entire season after undergoing surgery to repair the torn ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow (April 8, Dr. James Andrews).

© made his only start of the campaign during a spring contest March 13, pitching 1.1 innings against Anaheim.

© did not throw off a mound again until December 20 (at the Cubs' Mesa, AZ, minor league complex).

© in a 9-4 win over Philadelphia June 20, he homered off Matt Beech.

© set the Cubs' 20th-century single-season rookie strikeout record in his final start of the season August 31 vs. Cincinnati, fanning Brett Tomko for strikeout No. 226 ... two innings later, he hit a 2-run homer off Tomko.

© missed the last month of the regular season due to a sprained ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.

© returned to the mound in the Division Series, as he started Game 3 against Atlanta ... took the loss in a 6-2 decision, allowing 1 run and 3 hits in 5.0 innings.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Sammy Sosa and Jon Lieber represented the Cubs at the All-Star Game in Seattle.

1+1: On May 25 vs. Milwaukee, Kerry Wood followed up Jon Lieber's 1-hit/78-pitch gem of May 24 (3-0 win over Cincinnati) by throwing a 1-hitter of his own in the Cubs' 1-0 victory.

© this was the eighth time in major league history — and the first time in Cubs annals — that pitchers threw back-to-back complete-game 1-hitters.

- ◆ this was the first time since the 1972 campaign that the Cubs had two 1-hitters in the same season ... that year, the Cubs had a pair of no-hitters (Burt Hooton, April 16 vs. Philadelphia) and Milt Pappas (September 2 vs. San Diego) to go along with 1-hitters thrown by Fergie Jenkins (July 27 at Philadelphia) and Bill Hands (August 3 at Montreal).

© the last time the Cubs had been participants in back-to-back 1-hitters took place in 1911 ... on September 19 that year, Philadelphia's Bill Burns gave up 1 hit in a 2-0 victory over the Cubs at Chicago's West Side Grounds ... 24 hours later, the Cubs returned the favor when Leonard "King" Cole 1-hit Philadelphia in a 1-0 victory.

MORE RARE FEATS: On April 18, Jeff Fassero earned saves in both games of a doubleheader vs. Philadelphia (4-3 and 5-3), becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat since Bruce Sutter in 1979 (September 18 at New York).

© on May 5, the Cubs defeated Los Angeles 20-1 — the team's 15th 20-run game since 1900 and first since August 18, 1995 ... the 19-run win tied for the club's 2nd-largest margin of victory since 1900.

- ◆ the Cubs scored 8 times in both the 7th and 8th innings — only the fifth time in M.L. history that a team plated at least 8 runs in consecutive innings, and the first time since Cleveland accomplished that feat July 29, 1928, against the New York Yankees.

© on May 18, three Arizona pitchers combined to 1-hit the Cubs — the first time that had happened against the club since the 1997 campaign.

© on June 7, St. Louis' Matt Morris no-hit the Cubs for 6.2 innings ... was the first opponent to take a no-hitter against the Cubs past 6.0 innings since Florida's Alex Fernandez in 1997.

© on July 5 at New York, Jason Bere recorded 2 hits in the 3rd inning — leading off the frame with a single and later adding a 2-run double ... was the first Cubs pitcher to have a multi-hit inning since Burt Hooton had 2 hits during a 7-run 3rd inning against Houston June 14, 1974.

© on August 10 vs. San Francisco, Ricky Gutierrez stole home (as part of a double steal with Michael Tucker).

© on August 30 vs. Florida, Bill Mueller hit a game-ending walkoff homer off Ricky Bones — the first by a Cub in over two years.

© on September 29 vs. Houston, Fred McGriff, Rondell White and Todd Hundley hit back-to-back home runs off Dave Mlicki ... it marked just the eighth time that occurred in Cubs history.

© on October 6 vs. Pittsburgh, Julian Tavarez took a no-hit bid into the 8th inning ... was the first Cubs starter to take a no-hitter into the 8th since Frank Castillo in 1995.

RECORDS ROUNDUP: Cubs pitchers fanned a major league-record 1,344 batters, surpassing the 1,245 fanned by Atlanta pitchers in 1996.

© Sammy Sosa set club records for total bases (425), extra-base hits (103) and slugging percentage (.737), topping the marks set by Hack Wilson in 1930 (423 total bases, 97 extra-base hits, .723 slugging percentage).

- ◆ was intentionally walked 37 times — setting the big league single-season mark for a right-handed batter (San Francisco's Kevin Mitchell drew 32 intentional walks in 1989).
- ◆ his 17 homers in August tied the N.L. mark for that month (Willie Mays, 1965).
- ◆ on September 23 in Houston, he became the first player in M.L. history to have three 3-homer games in one season ... his five career 3-homer games are a club record.
- ◆ on October 2, he became the first player to have three 60-homer seasons when he went deep off Cincinnati's Lance Davis ... his four 50-plus homer campaigns tied a M.L. mark.

© Eric Young was caught stealing April 15 vs. Pittsburgh, snapping his club-record steals streak at 34 (dating back to last July 2).

© Jeff Fassero pitched in a club-high 82 games — the Cubs record for a left-handed pitcher ... surpassed Bob Patterson's total of 79 appearances in 1996.

© the Cubs went the entire season without allowing an opposing pitcher to go the distance against them — the first time that occurred in big league history.

- ◆ the lowest total of complete games pitched against any team had taken place in 1993 — when the Philadelphia Phillies were the victims of just 2 route-going efforts.

THE CRIME DOG: After being acquired from Tampa Bay in late July, Fred McGriff reached the 30-homer and 100-RBI marks in a Cubs uniform — finishing the year with 31 roundtrippers and 102 RBI.

© in the process, he joined Hank Aaron (17 straight seasons from 1955-1971) as the only players in M.L. history to drive in 80-plus runs in at least 14 straight campaigns.

YOU'RE OUTTA HERE: The following Cubs personnel were ejected from games:

Circling The Bases

On October 6, 2001, at Wrigley Field, Sammy Sosa circled the bases in the 3rd inning for an inside-the-park homer off Pittsburgh's Tony McKnight.

Here are the Cubs' inside-the-park homer records:

Career Leader (Since 1900): 18.....	Frank Schulte
Single-Season: 6.....	Tommy Leach (1913); Cy Williams (1915)
Game: 2.....	Hugh Duffy (8/9/1889 vs. Boston Braves), Topsy Hartsel (8/5/1901 @ Cincinnati)

The only time in Cubs history that the club had back-to-back inside-the-park homers took place June 23, 1946, when Eddie Waitkus and Marv Rickert accomplished the feat against the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds.

The last Cub to have an inside-the-park homer as his first M.L. homer was Carmen Mauro — on October 3, 1948, at St. Louis (off Murry Dickson).

Dating back to the 1983 campaign, only seven inside-the-park homers have been hit at Wrigley Field. The list:

Pitching In

The Cubs set a team mark in 1999 by utilizing 25 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10 — a figure reached in both 1999 and 2000. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of 8 had stood since 1966.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and 1 walk while striking out 8.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the bottom of the 19th inning.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Gary Gaetti, who saw relief action July 3, 1999, at Philadelphia.

The last time Cubs pitchers recorded three consecutive complete games took place in 1976. On September 18, Rick Reuschel went the distance but took the loss in a 4-1 contest vs. Philadelphia. On September 19, Ray Burris tossed a shutout in a 1-0 win vs. the Phillies. After an off-day, the Cubs returned to action September 21 vs. Pittsburgh — and Steve Renko went the route but suffered the loss in a 4-3 setback.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910. The worst start belongs to Jim Brewer, who began his Cubs career 0-8 in 1961.

The Cubs' top single-season pitchers' batting marks for:

AVG: .350...Percy Jones (1927)
H: 30...Lon Warneke (1930)
HR: 6...Fergie Jenkins (1971)
RBI: 20...Fergie Jenkins (1971)
SO: 55...Don Cardwell (1961)

1-Hitters

Entering the 2002 season, the Cubs have played 5,721 games since they were no-hit by Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax in 1965 (a span of just over 36 years). The major league record for consecutive campaigns without being no-hit is 40, set by St. Louis from 1920-1959.

Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 17 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring May 18, 2001 — when Randy Johnson and Arizona Diamondbacks relievers Byung-Hyun Kim and Bret Prinz combined to accomplish that feat at Wrigley Field. The last pitcher to throw a complete-game 1-hitter against the Cubs was Florida's Alex Fernandez — who took a no-hitter into the 9th inning April 10, 1997, at Wrigley Field (broken up by a Dave Hansen single). The last pitcher to take a no-hitter past the 6th inning against the Cubs was St. Louis' Matt Morris (6.2 innings on June 7, 2001, at Wrigley Field).

The Cubs have played 4,599 contests since Milt Pappas' near-perfect game in 1972. Over that stretch, Cubs pitchers have thrown 14 one-hitters, with the last one taking place May 25, 2001 — when Kerry Wood blanked Milwaukee in a 1-0 contest.

The last Cubs pitcher to take a no-hitter past the 7th inning was Julian Tavarez, who pitched 7.1 no-hit innings October 6, 2001, vs. Pittsburgh at Wrigley Field. The last Cub to have a no-hitter through 8.0 innings was Frank Castillo, who lost a no-hitter with 2 out in the 9th inning on September 25, 1995, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (Bernard Gilkey triple).

The Cubs have not had a no-hitter nor a 1-hitter pitched against Arizona, Colorado, Florida, New York or an American League club. Here are the Cubs' most recent 1-hitters against their other National League foes:

Historical INFORMATION

Highlights In Cubs History

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while centerfielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the 2nd inning.

- © the first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.
- © the creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.
- © of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first world championship in a 4-game sweep of Detroit.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit 4 games to 1.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

- © Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.
- © after Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.
- © the sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 191 runs while hitting 56 home runs — a club/N.L. record that lasted until 1998.

- © the largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) took place June 27 vs. Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

1935: The Cubs won 21 straight September games in capturing the N.L. pennant.

1989: The Cubs won their second N.L. Eastern Division title when they defeated Montreal 3-2 at Olympic Stadium September 26 ... the Cubs compiled a 93-69 record under N.L. Manager of the Year Don Zimmer before falling in the NLCS to San Francisco 4 games to 1.

© for only the fifth time, teammates finished as the top two votegetters in the Jackie Robinson N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting ... Jerome Walton, who had a club-record 30-game hitting streak during the season, won the award, while Dwight Smith finished 2nd in the voting.

1990: Ryne Sandberg hit a league-high 40 home runs, the 3rd-highest single-season total for a second baseman behind the 42 hit by St. Louis' Rogers Hornsby in 1922 and Atlanta's Davey Johnson in 1973.

© Sandberg also set a M.L. record by playing errorless ball in 123 straight games at second base June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990.

© Sammy Sosa hit the 10,000th homer in Cubs history August 14 in Los Angeles (off Tom Candiotti).

1998: The Cubs went to postseason play as the N.L.'s Wild Card club after defeating San Francisco 5-3 in a 1-game tie-breaker ... the Cubs were swept by Atlanta during the Division Series.

© Sammy Sosa, who battled St. Louis' Mark McGwire for the major league homer record, earned N.L. Most Valuable Player honors ... Sosa finished the campaign with 66 homers — 4 behind McGwire — while leading the majors with 158 RBI and 134 runs scored.

© Kerry Wood was named the league's Rookie of the Year after going 13-6 in 26 starts with 233 strikeouts ... on May 6 vs. Houston, he tied the M.L. single-game mark by fanning 20 batters while allowing just 1 hit in a complete-game 2-0 win.

2001: Sammy Sosa became the first player in M.L. history to reach the 60-homers mark in three different campaigns ... he also became the first player to have a trio of 3-homer games in one season.

© Sosa had a club-record 425 total bases for his second career 400-plus campaign (416 in 1998).

© on May 24-May 25, Jon Lieber and Kerry Wood hurled back-to-back complete-game 1-hit shutouts.

Mr. Cub — Ernie Banks

For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit a club-record 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958).

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the leftfield foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's all-century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931, in Dallas, TX, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-1971 and served as a coach from 1967-1973. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953. His Cubs/major league statistics:

Connect The Dots

The Cubs' entire National League history can be spanned by the careers of as few as nine players.

Hall of Famer Cap Anson played for the club from 1876-1897. Frank Chance joined the team in 1898 and was with the Cubs until 1912. He was in turn followed by Hippo Vaughn (1913-1921), Gabby Hartnett (1922-1940), Phil Cavarretta (1935-1953) and Ernie Banks (1953-1971). Rick Reuschel's first tour of duty with the Cubs took place from 1972-1981, then Ryne Sandberg played for the team from 1982 until his first retirement in 1994.

Sammy Sosa (1992) made his Cubs debut prior to Sandberg's first retirement.

The Numbers Game

On June 30, 1932 — one week after National League team presidents approved players wearing numbers — the Cubs added numbers to their uniforms. Like most teams, the Cubs' numbering system followed the team's batting order, with leadoff hitter Woody English wearing No. 1.

© no number has been worn every season by a Cub. Jersey No. 22 had the longest streak — 57 years — as the number was utilized every season from 1932-1988 by, among others, Dizzy Dean, Paul Popovich and Bill Buckner.

© Stan Hack wore eight numbers as a Cub — 6, 20, 25, 31, 34, 39, 49 and 54. Other 1930s Cubs who wore at least six different numbers were Charlie Grimm (1, 6, 7, 8, 38, 40, 50), Charlie Root (4, 12, 14, 17, 19, 49) and Lon Warneke (12, 16, 17, 19, 32, 36).

© the only player to wear both Nos. 14 and 26 was Lou Novikoff — who wore 26 in 1941 and 14 in 1942. He also wore 19 and 45 during his four-year stint with the Cubs.

Hey Now, You're An All-Star

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all 3 games by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks 2nd in club history with 10 All-Star appearances (9 starts).

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning 2-run bases-loaded 9th-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Six Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Andre Dawson in the 1991 contest off Boston's Roger Clemens. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fothergill) and Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt).

Cubs pitchers have earned 5 All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up 4 saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered 4 All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

The youngest Cubs player selected to the N.L. All-Star team was Greg Maddux, who was 22 years old at the 1988 Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati. As he did not participate in that contest, the nod as the youngest Cub to play in the All-Star Game goes to 23-year-old Ron Santo in 1963. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Fergie Jenkins (1967).

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

Revolving Door

A club-record 51 players were utilized by the Cubs during the 2000 campaign (27 position players, 24 pitchers). In 1999, the Cubs set a team mark by sending 25 different pitchers to the mound. The record for most players starting at any position in one season is 15, as the club utilized that total of starting pitchers in seven different campaigns (most recently 1990). Besides pitchers, the Cubs single-year marks for players used at a position: 8 catchers (1916, 1960), 9 first basemen (1976), 9 second basemen (1893), 9 shortstops (1916), 10 third basemen (1902, 1957), 12 leftfielders (five times, most recently 2000), 10 centerfielders (1904) and 16 rightfielders (1902).

Please Come Back

Of the more than 1,700 players who have appeared in at least one game for the Cubs, five have had 10-plus year interruptions in their time with the club:

13 years: Roger Bresnahan (1900 ... 1913-1915) and Johnny Moore (1928-1929, 1931-1932 ... 1945)

12 years: Larry Gura (1970-1973 ... 1985) and Dave Martinez (1986-1988 ... 2000)

10 years: Lonny Frey (1937 ... 1947)

The longest span between homers for the team belongs to Billy Jurgens, who went 9 years, 22 days between Cubs homers August 2, 1938, through August 24, 1947 (both homers were hit at the Polo Grounds). Jurgens was a Cub from 1931-1938 and in 1946-1947.

June First-Year Amateur Player Draft

Major League clubs meet each June for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of his selection until 10 days prior to the next draft. Clubs select free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed their junior years or become 21 years of age.

Historic Wrigley Field Roundtrippers

On September 28, 1938, Gabby Hartnett's "Homer in the Gloamin'" propelled the Cubs to the 1938 National League pennant. Entering the day, the Cubs trailed the visiting first-place Pirates by a half-game. Tied 5-5 with darkness descending at Wrigley Field, the game was to be suspended if neither team scored in the 9th — but Hartnett's 2-out blast into the leftfield bleachers won it.

On April 8, 1969, Willie Smith's 2-run pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 11th inning gave the Cubs a 7-6 victory over Philadelphia on Opening Day at Wrigley Field. Trailing 6-5 with 1 out, Smith thrilled the crowd of 40,796 by homering into the rightfield bleachers to put the Cubs in first place in the N.L. East for the first of 155 straight days.

On May 12, 1970, Ernie Banks became the first player in Cubs history to reach the 500-homers mark, accomplishing the feat with a 2nd-inning homer off Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.

Consecutive-Game Streaks

A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if a player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance does not extend a streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all a player's plate appearances result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Let's Turn Three

On May 10, 1997, the Cubs turned their last triple play.

That afternoon at San Francisco's Candlestick Park, the Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the 5th inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short centerfield, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (centerfielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The Ultimate Cubs Debut

On May 15, 1960, Don Cardwell made his Cubs debut — and pitched a no-hitter in defeating St. Louis 4-0 in the second game of a doubleheader at Wrigley Field. Cubs leftfielder Moose Moryn made a shoestring catch of Joe Cunningham's sinking liner for the game's final out.

The last pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout in his Cubs debut was left-hander Andrew Lorraine, who 3-hit Houston in a 6-0 affair August 6, 1999, at Wrigley Field.

Getting Offensive

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a 3-game span — winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the 3-game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits — including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, 4 triples, 5 homers).

This marked the second time in four years that the Cubs scored at least 10 runs in 3 straight games, as they also accomplished that feat September 11-September 13, 1998, against Milwaukee at Wrigley Field (13-11 loss, 15-12 win, 11-10 win).

Prior to that 1998 series, the Cubs had not had 3 consecutive double-digit games since the 1930 campaign — when the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-runs plateau in 5 straight games June 1-June 6. During that stretch — the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing 3 games — the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a 3-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

You Complete Me

The last Cubs pitcher to throw 2 complete games against any team in one season was Steve Trachsel — in 1996 against Houston. Trachsel started 4 times against the Astros that year, going the distance in his first and third contests (May 13 and August 17).

The last Cubs pitcher to go the distance in consecutive starts vs. the same club was Greg Maddux — against San Diego in 1992 (May 22 and June 1). The 2 complete games came during an overall 3-start stretch. The last Cubs pitcher to oppose the same club in consecutive games — and go the distance in both contests — was Rick Sutcliffe in 1984 against New York (September 8 and September 14).

Keeping Them Off The Board

The Cubs allowed just 5 runs over a 5-game span July 27-July 31, 2000 — the club's lowest total since giving up 3 runs over a 5-game stretch in 1972 (September 23-September 27).

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the club's lowest 5-game runs allowed total is 2 — set from May 11-May 16 that season. The Cubs defeated San Francisco 8-0, followed by a 3-game sweep of San Diego (2-0, 19-0 and 3-2) and an 11-0 shutout over Houston.

Trying To Dig Out Of A Hole

No Cubs team has ever overcome being more than 10 games below the .500 mark to finish a campaign at .500 or above. The biggest turnaround was 10 games, accomplished in 1968.

The 1968 club was 10 games under .500 twice, most recently on July 5 (35-45). That team finished the year at 84-78.

Pinched By A Pitcher

On August 11, 2001, San Francisco's Livan Hernandez was the last pitcher to have a 4-hit game against the Cubs — going 4-for-4 with a solo homer and 3 RBI.

On August 8, 2000, Los Angeles pitcher Darren Dreifort hit a pair of homers in a 7-5 victory over the Cubs at Dodger Stadium. Dreifort was just the fourth pitcher to record a multi-homer game against the Cubs, joining Cincinnati's Frank Foreman (July 4, 1895), the Boston Braves' Jim Tobin — who hit 3 homers May 13, 1942 — and the New York Mets' Walt Terrell (August 6, 1983).

Mesa And HoHoKam Park

The Cubs will spend their 24th consecutive spring training in Mesa in 2002 and their sixth at the new HoHoKam Park/Fitch Park facilities ... in 2001, the club went 17-14-1 during the Cactus League campaign.

© HoHoKam Park is operated by the city of Mesa with assistance from the HoHoKams, a local service organization.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.

- ◆ with a population of over 425,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 43rd-largest city in the country — directly between Oakland and Tulsa.

- ◆ Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.

© the telephone number for the Mesa Convention and Visitors Bureau is 1-800-283-MESA.

The Cubs began play at the new HoHoKam Park in 1997.

© new HoHoKam Park has a seating capacity of 12,575 ... there are 8,000 fixed seats and 2,000 bleacher seats to go with an outfield lawn seating capacity of 2,575.

© the stadium dimensions are:

340 feet down the leftfield line
350 feet down the rightfield line
410 feet to straight-away centerfield
390 feet to the power alleys

© the batter's eye in centerfield is 80 feet wide by 40 feet high ... the outfield fence is 15 feet, 4 inches high.

© new HoHoKam Park also has a practice field, a practice infield, four batting tunnels, bi-level bullpens in right-centerfield and a 13,955-square foot clubhouse ... the facility, which includes paved and grass parking for 3,000 cars, was built on a 48.45-acre site.

In 1999, the Cubs established a HoHoKam Park/Cactus League single-season attendance record ... the club drew 171,681 fans for its 15 home dates, an average of 11,445 per date.

© the Cubs' yearly attendance figures at the new site:

1997 (16 dates)	157,066

1999 (15 dates)	171,681
2000 (13 dates)	137,008
2001 (15 dates)	142,049

12,633	three times

© the single-year attendance mark at the old HoHoKam Park was 141,327, set in 1993 (19 dates).

Following the 1996 spring campaign, a new Fitch Park practice complex was built on a 31-acre lot ... Fitch Park has four practice fields, one practice infield and a 29,733-square foot clubhouse with lockers for 200 players and 36 coaches.

Mesa is the 14th different training site used by the Cubs since 1900 and the fifth since 1921 ... in some instances, the team's exhibition games were not played at the training site.

Bear Cubs

The highest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs was 20 — in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902, edition.

History Of Wrigley Field

Wrigley Field, which was built in 1914, is playing host to major league baseball for the 89th season in 2002.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

- © Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- © the cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- © the first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson — a 2-run shot in the 2nd inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- © when the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.
- © the first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- © the park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

- © The Friendly Confines has been the location of such historic moments as:
 - ◆ Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
 - ◆ Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
 - ◆ the great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
 - ◆ Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
 - ◆ Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- © the score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" to signify hit and error, are eyelets.
- © no batted ball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed — a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- © one of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

- © the bleacher wall is 11.5 feet high ... the basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.
- © Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from the leftfield foul pole ... Billy Williams' No. 26 flies from the rightfield foul pole.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

- © the first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out after 3¹/₂ innings.
- © the first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- © in 2002, Wrigley Field will be celebrating its 15th year of playing host to baseball under the lights.
 - ◆ the Cubs entered the season having played 224 home night contests (going 117-107).

Wrigley Field has been the site of numerous construction projects since Tribune Company purchased the Cubs in 1981.

- © new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.
- © during the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- © in 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcasting booths ... a press box and broadcasting booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other improvements included a food court in the upper deck.
 - ◆ following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are now 63 private boxes.
- © an elevator was added to the third base concourse in 1996.
